Down the Rabbit Hole

* Our * * Inspiration *

"Inspired by my childhood memories of my bold and beautiful grandmother, for me, chocolate is synonymous with comfort food & happy times".

"We were a bunch of 9 grandchildren who would trail behind our Mimi (my grandma) hoping to get a sweet treat from her after playtime in the scorching summer of April in Chennai. The best part was that she always had a stock of these 'foreign goodies' - VanHouten Chocolate from Singapore in her almirah. The woody aromas of the chocolate in her cupboard are etched in our memory and bring back a whirlwind of emotions that we can taste till date. It's those moments of innocent childhood enjoyments - that unadulterated sparkles of joy and happiness - that get recreated for me in every square of chocolate that we make at our workshop. Though we use new flavours and contemporary processes, when I am creating a flavour we rummage through the nooks and crannies of our childhood experiences in search of elements in our nostalgia that we can relive with chocolate - it is all about those feel-good taste notes! So our base chocolate will always have that familiar deliciousness" says Nadia (Founder of Mimi's Chocolate Workshop).
